

A Blessed Man holds to God's unchanging hand.

He asks for guidance and for his family a plan.

He will not waiver of compromise, but on the Word will stand.

He is not shaken when faced with trials.

But believes he will make it because Scripture says he can.

A Blessed Man is loving to his wife, who came from his rib, a woman.

A Blessed Man realizes the world will never quench his thirst.

But will keep God First.

A Blessed Man does not cease to pray but will commune with Him each day.

Heaven should be in his view.

The harvest is plentiful with plenty of spiritual work to do.

A Blessed Man remembers obedience is better than sacrifice.

Christ's blood shed paid the price.

Worship Him in spirit and in truth.

He gave us the right to the tree of life.

Continue to walk upright because we are being watched by others in plain sight. The Lord is soon to come for His Church by day or night.

A Blessed Man asks God for help with his battle, not balling up his fists for a fight.

A Blessed Man one day will receive a crown. Well done my good and faithful servant — angels singing how sweet the sound.

A BLESSED MAN
